Projects

Automated Vehicle Al System To Avoid Pileup | Python, C++ 2025

- Developed a real-time highway safety system using 77 GHz mmWave radar and fog/visibility sensors to accurately detect vehicles, measure distance and speed, and adapt driving decisions under fog, rain, and low-visibility conditions.
- Implemented offline sensor fusion on ESP32 /Raspberry Pi, integrating radar and environmental data to generate automatic collision warnings in remote and poor-network regions.

AI healthcare and Disease Analysis | Power BI dashboards, DAX, and data visualization techniques 2024

- Designed a Power BI–based patient disease analytics system to monitor patient health metrics using real-time and historical data, enabling trend analysis and anomaly detection through data comparison and validation.
- Enhanced clinical decision support by transforming complex medical data into interactive dashboards and visual reports for faster, insight-driven analysis.

Ozonolysis for Water Purification | Python for data analysis, MATLAB for modeling, and laboratory tools 2023

- Investigated the use of ozonolysis reactions to remove organic pollutants and contaminants from water, improving its overall quality and safety. .
- Developed and analyzed methods for cleansing water efficiently using ozone treatment, demonstrating reduction in harmful compounds and enhanced purification.
